COMPLAINTS POLICY

Nurture, Empower, Achieve

School Vision

- Gilwern School creates a happy, secure and stimulating environment, where learners are encouraged to reach their full potential.
- The school works effectively with others and plays a central role in the community.
- All staff are committed to continuous improvement and achievement of high standards.

We are a Rights Respecting School

In 1991 our Government signed up to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC). In signing the Convention, the 54 articles laid down have become enshrined in UK law. The Convention applies to everyone.

At Gilwern Primary School we aim to work within the spirit as well as the letter of the Convention and our school policies and home-school agreement is based around these rights and responsibilities. At Gilwern Primary School we work together so that the rights of the child are ensured and their responsibilities are clear.

Introduction

Gilwern School is committed to dealing effectively with complaints. We aim to clarify any issues that individuals are unsure about. If possible we aim to listen to all stakeholders and put right any mistakes we have made. We aim to learn from mistakes and use that experience to improve what we do.

Our definition of a complaint is “an expression of dissatisfaction in relation to the school or a member of its staff that requires a response from the school”.

This complaints procedure supports our commitment to and is a way of ensuring that anyone with an interest in the school can raise a concern, with confidence that it will be heard and, if well-founded, addressed in an appropriate and timely fashion.

When to use this procedure

When you have a concern or wish to make a complaint we will usually respond in the way we explain below. Sometimes you might be concerned about matters that are not decided by the school, in which case we will tell you who to complain to. At other times you may be concerned about matters that are handled by other procedures, in which case we will explain to you how your concern will be dealt with.

If your concern or complaint is about another body as well as the school (for example the local authority) we will work with them to decide how to handle your concern.

Have you asked us yet?

If you are approaching us for the first time an opportunity should be given for an individual to respond. If you are not happy with the response then you may make your complaint using the procedure we describe below. Most concerns can be settled quickly just by speaking to the relevant person in school, without the need to use a formal procedure.

What we expect from you

We believe that all complainants have the right to be heard, understood and respected. School staff and governors have the same rights. We expect you to be polite and courteous. We will not tolerate aggressive behaviour. We will also not tolerate unreasonable demands or unreasonable persistence or vexatious complaining.

Our approach to answering your concern /complaint

We will consider all your concerns and complaints in an open and fair way.

At all times the school will respect the rights and feelings of those involved and make every effort to protect confidential information.

Timescales for dealing with your concerns or complaints may need to be extended following discussion with you.

NURTURE – EMPOWER - ACHIEVE

We may ask for advice from the local authority or diocesan authority where appropriate.

Some types of concern or complaint may raise issues that have to be dealt with in another way, other than this complaints policy), in which case we will explain why this is so and will tell you which steps will be taken.

The governing body will keep records of documents used to investigate your concern or complaint for seven years after it has been dealt with. Records will be kept in school and reviewed by the governing body after seven years to decide if they need to be kept for longer.

Complaints that are made anonymously will be recorded but investigation will be at the discretion of the school depending on the nature of the complaint.

Where a complaint is considered to have been made only to cause harm or offence to individuals or the school, the governing body will ensure that records are kept of the investigations that are made and what actions are taken, including reasons for 'no action'.

Answering your concern or complaint

The chart in Appendix A shows what may happen when you make a complaint or raise a concern. There are up to three stages: A, B and C. Most complaints can be resolved at stages A or B. You can bring a relative or companion to support you at any time during the process but you will be expected to speak for yourself. However, we recognise that when the complainant is a pupil it is reasonable for the companion to speak on their behalf and/or to advise the pupil.

As far as possible, your concern or complaint will be dealt with on a confidential basis. However, there may be occasions when the person dealing with your concern or complaint will need to consider whether anyone else within the school needs to know about your concern or complaint, so as to address it properly.

If you are a pupil under 16 and wish to raise a concern or bring a complaint we will ask for your permission before we involve your parent(s) or carer(s). If you are a pupil under 16 and are involved in a complaint in any other way, we may ask your parent(s) or carer(s) to become involved and attend any discussion or interview with you.

Stage A

If you have a concern, you can often resolve it quickly by talking to a teacher or a member of the office staff. You should raise your concern as soon as possible; normally we would expect you to raise an issue within 10 school days of any incident. The longer you leave it the harder it might be for those involved to deal with it effectively.

NURTURE – EMPOWER - ACHIEVE

If you are a pupil, you can raise your concerns with your school council representative or an adult member of staff who will report it to the relevant class teacher/phase leader to deal with pupil concerns. This will not stop you, at a later date, from raising a complaint if you feel that the issue you have raised has not been dealt with properly.

We will try and let you know what we have done or are doing about your concern normally within 10 school days, but if this is not possible, we will talk to you and agree a revised timescale with you.

The person overseeing your concern or complaint will keep you informed of the progress being made. This person will also keep a log of the concern for future reference.

Stage B

In most cases, we would expect that your concern is resolved informally. If you feel that your initial concern has not been dealt with appropriately you should put your complaint in writing to the Headteacher.

We would expect you to do this within 5 school days of receiving a response to your concern as it is in everyone's interest to resolve a complaint as soon as possible. There is also a form attached (Appendix B) that you may find useful. If you are a pupil we will explain the form to you, help you complete it and give you a copy.

If your complaint is about the Headteacher, you should put your complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors, addressed to the school, to ask for your complaint to be investigated.

In all cases a member of staff can help you to put your complaint in writing if necessary.

If you are involved in any way with a complaint, the Headteacher will explain what will happen and the sort of help that is available to you.

The Headteacher will invite you to discuss your complaint at a meeting. Timescales for dealing with your complaint will be agreed with you. The Headteacher will aim to have a meeting with you, and to explain what will happen, normally within 10 school days of receiving your letter. The Headteacher will complete the investigation and will let you know the outcome in writing within 10 school days of completion.

Stage C

It is rare that a complaint will progress any further. However, if you still feel that your complaint has not been dealt with fairly, you should write, to the chair of governors at the school address setting out your reasons for asking the governing body's complaints committee to consider your complaint. You do not have to write down details of your whole complaint again.

NURTURE – EMPOWER - ACHIEVE

If you prefer, instead of sending a letter or email, you can talk to your chair of governors or Deputy Headteacher who will write down what is discussed and what, in your own words, would resolve the problem. We would normally expect you to do this within 5 school days of receiving the school's response. You will be asked to read the notes or will have the notes read back to you and then be asked to sign them as a true record of what was said. We will let you know how the complaint will be dealt with and will send a letter to confirm this. The complaints committee will normally have a meeting with you within 15 school days of receiving your letter.

The letter will also tell you when all the evidence and documentation to be considered by the complaints committee must be received. Everyone involved will see the evidence and documentation before the meeting, whilst ensuring that people's rights to privacy of information are protected. The letter will also record what we have agreed with you about when and where the meeting will take place and what will happen. The timescale may need to be changed, to allow for the availability of people, the gathering of evidence or seeking advice. In this case, the person dealing with the complaint will agree a new meeting date with you.

Normally, in order to deal with the complaint as quickly as possible, the complaints committee will not reschedule the meeting more than once. If you ask to reschedule the meeting more than once the committee may think it reasonable to make a decision on the complaint in your absence to avoid unnecessary delays.

We will write to you within 10 school days of the meeting explaining the outcome of the governing body's complaints committee's consideration.

We will keep records of all conversations and discussions for the purpose of future reference and review by the full governing body. These records will be kept for a minimum of seven years.

The governing body's complaints committee is the final arbiter of complaints.

Special Circumstances

Where a complaint is made about any of the following the complaints procedure will be applied differently:

A governor or group of governors

The concern or complaint will be referred to the chair of governors for investigation. The chair may alternatively delegate the matter to another governor for investigation. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

The chair of governors or headteacher and chair of governors

The vice chair of governors will be informed and will investigate it or may delegate it to another governor. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

NURTURE – EMPOWER - ACHIEVE

Both the chair of governors and the vice chair of governors

The complaint will be referred to the clerk to the governing body who will inform the chair of the complaints committee. Stage C of the complaints procedure will then apply.

The whole governing body

The complaint will be referred to the clerk to the governing body who will inform the headteacher, chair of governors, local authority and where appropriate the diocesan authority. The authorities will usually agree arrangements with the governing body for independent investigation of the complaint.

The Headteacher

The concern or complaint will be referred to the chair of governors who will undertake the investigation or may delegate it to another governor. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

In all cases the school and governing body will ensure that complaints are dealt with in an unbiased, open and fair way.

Our commitment to you

We will take your concerns and complaints seriously and, where we have made mistakes, will try to learn from them.

If you need help to make your concerns known we will try and assist you. If you are a young person and need extra assistance the Welsh Government has established MEIC which is a national advocacy and advice helpline for children and young people. Advice and support can also be accessed from the Children’s Commissioner for Wales.

MEIC may be contacted by Freephone: 0808 802 3456, or text : 84001. This service is operated 24 hours a day.

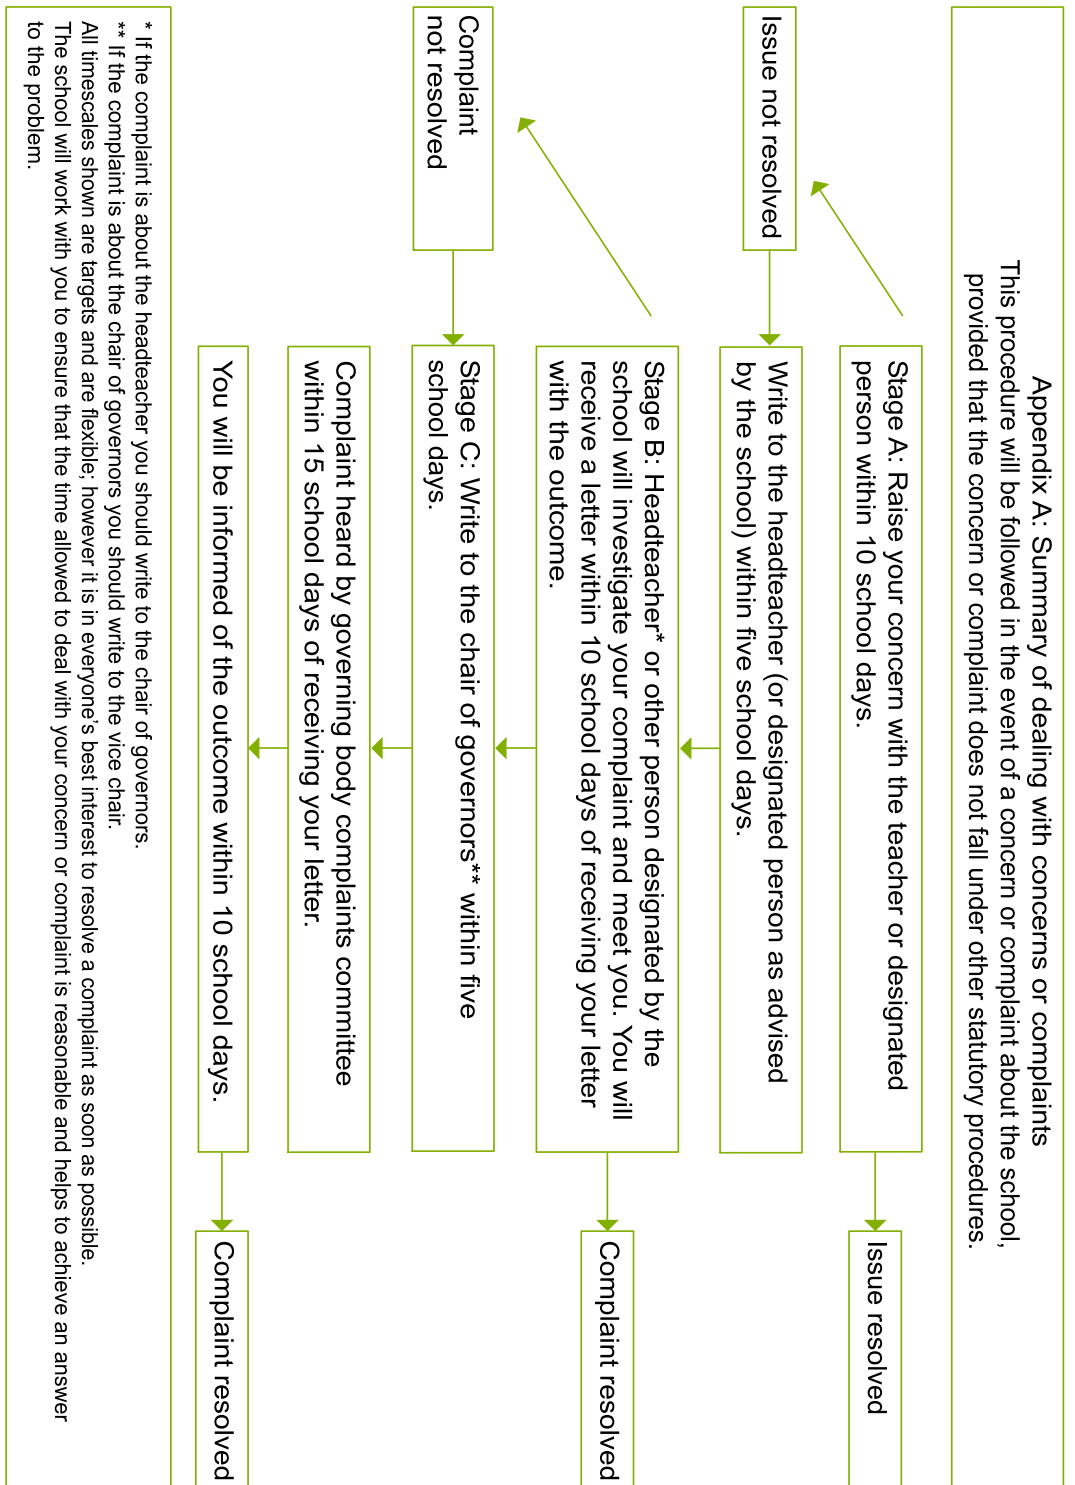

The Children’s Commissioner for Wales can be contacted by Freephone: 0808 801 1000 (Monday to Friday 9a.m. – 5p.m.), text: 80 800 (start your message with COM) or e.mail: advice@childcomwales.org.uk

Appendix A: Summary of dealing with concerns or complaints

Appendix B: Model Complaint Form

The person who experienced the problem should normally fill in this form. If you are making a complaint on behalf of someone else please fill in Section B also. Please note that before taking forward the complaint we will need to be satisfied that you have the authority to act on behalf of the person concerned. If you are a pupil the school will help you complete this form, will explain it to you and will give you a copy of it when it is completed.
